Union Heads Meet to Decide Whether $600,000,000 a Year Advance Is Acceptable.

GRANT IS 60 PER CENT OF SUM UNIONS ASKED FOR

Roads to Request Higher Freight and Passenger Rates; Newly Formed "Outlaw" Unions of Yardmen and Others Are Ignored in Labor Board Decision.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, July 20.—An increase of about 21 per cent in wages was awarded to the 2,000,000 railroad workers in the United States today in a decision of the new Railway Labor Board.

The decision of the board rejects the demands of the organized railway unions for an increase totaling $1,000,000,000, and grants to them approximately $600,000,000 a year, or about 60 per cent of their request.

Railroad officials have declared that any pay increase awarded the men must be followed by a corresponding increase in rates, and they plan to file new tariffs with the Interstate Commerce Commission as soon as they can be prepared.

Whether the award as given will stave off the threat of a general railroad strike remains to be seen. The leaders of practically every one of the 16 big railroad unions were present this morning when Judge M. Barton, chairman of the board, handed down the decision. They left immediately to present the award to 1000 general chairmen, who had gathered here to pass on its acceptability. The union presidents refused to make any comment before the meeting. The terms of the decision had been known to them yesterday, and they believed then their men would stay in line, at least until a referendum vote can be taken. Nearly a month would be needed for the referendum.

Retrospective to May.

The board's decision is retrospective to May 1. "As the maximum increase granted any class was 18 cents an hour, or $4.75 per month, the biggest pay check due when the back-pay settlement is made Aug. 1 will be for $110.16. Engineers, firemen and helpers in the passenger service will receive this amount."

Seven factors were taken into consideration in arriving at the award, the preamble of the board's announcement says. They were: The scale paid for similar kinds of work in other industries. The relation between wages and the cost of living. The hazards of the employment. Training and skill required. Degree of responsibility. "Character and regularity of the employment, and inequalities in increases and treatment resulting from previous wage orders."

Abnormal Conditions. "Those persons who consider the rates determined on herein too high should reflect on the abnormal conditions resulting from the high cost of living and the high rates now being paid in other industries," the board says. "The employees who may believe these rates too low should consider the increased burden these rates will place on their fellow countrymen, many of whom are less favorably situated than ourselves."

"The board has endeavored to fix such wages as will provide a decent living and secure for the children of the wage earners opportunity for education, and yet to remember that no class of Americans should receive preferred treatment, and that a great mass of the people must ultimately pay a great part of the increased cost of operation entailed by the increase in wages determined herein."

How Decisions Were Reached. The decision, Chairman Barton explained, was not a unanimous one, some members dissenting on nearly every section. The award given was by a majority vote on each section, with at least one member of the public group voting for such award. Demands of the railroad men who struck last April and formed new unions are ignored by the board. No reference is made to the strikers or their demands. The board had refused to hear representatives of the new unions, holding, with the old brotherhoods, that the men were already represented by the officials of the recognized unions. The strikers demanded that the board order return of their full seniority rights, which the railroad had declared forfeited. This demand also is ignored. In addition to the 16 recognized brotherhoods two other unions, the International Association of Railroad Supervisors of Mechanics and the American Train Dispatchers' Association, are made a party to the decision. More than 400 railroads are specifically named as parties. The decision provides that in case of a dispute as to the interpretation of the decision the question shall be referred to the board for decision. The law does not require, however, that either side must accept the award.

THE REV. KYALE DISQUALIFIED;
VOLSTEAD IS NOMINEE

Wisconsin Judge Upholds Dry Law
Author in Contest Over Primary.

BENSON, Minn., July 20.—The Rev. O. J. Kyale of Benson is disqualified as the Republican candidate for Congress in the Seventh Minnesota District in a decision filed here today by District Judge Albert Johnson, who heard the suit contesting Kyale's nomination. Congressman Volstead, author of the prohibition enforcement act, who was defeated by Kyale in the June 21 primary, is declared in the decision to be the "duly nominated candidate of the Republican party." Kyale was endorsed by the Nonpartisan League.

Action contesting the Rev. Kyale's nomination was brought under the State Corrupt Practices Act, and its basis included charges printed and circulated by the Rev. Kyale, that Volstead was an atheist and opposed to the Bible and that he had made sneering allusions to the Rev. Kyale's preaching on the miracle of the five loaves and the two small fishes.

Judge Johnson's decision asserts the acts of Kyale "constitute a deliberate, serious and material violation of the laws of the State, and that there is no justification or excuse therefor, known."

Counsel for Rev. Kyale have indicated that an opinion adverse to their client would result in an appeal to the State Supreme Court.

NURSE SWIMS LAKE GENEVA

GENEVA, July 20.—A young French nurse, Margaret Pung, is said to have established a record for women by swimming across Lake Geneva Sunday from Evian to Lutry. She was 104 hours in the water and was buffeted by rough seas. Though the distance is only about eight miles she was obliged frequently to change her course. The record time for swimming across the lake, made by a man, is 7 1/2 hours.

DRUG STORE SALE OF LIQUOR TO BE INVESTIGATED HERE

Inquiry Ordered Upon Report That St. Louis Physicians Have Abused Prescription Privileges.

ISSUANCE OF BLANKS
TO DOCTORS HELD UP

Whisky Dealers Complain
Director Howell Is Forcing
Business to Kansas
City by Operations.

Investigators from the office of Shradler P. Howell, Prohibition Enforcement Director in Missouri, with headquarters in Kansas City, arrived yesterday to make an exhaustive examination of the liquor traffic in St. Louis conducted by physicians and druggists.

Information has reached Howell which has led him to believe that some physicians in St. Louis have abused their privilege to issue prescriptions for whisky and the investigators have been instructed to pay special attention to physicians. They also will investigate druggists who have been authorized to fill whisky prescriptions and wholesale and retail liquor dealers allowed to supply liquor to druggists and others. The issuance of prescription blanks to certain physicians whose supply has become exhausted, has been held up pending result of the investigation.

Under rulings promulgated by Prohibition Commissioner Kramer, physicians authorized to prescribe whisky may have 400 prescription blanks a year, to be obtained 100 each quarter. Many physicians are said now to have exhausted their supply, and to have applied for more.

There has been much delay in getting either the blanks or a ruling on the application for them, physicians say. That is said to be due partly to the fact that only one man, a field deputy, represents Howell here, to attend to all of the work, in the field and in the office, with delay as one inevitable result. Some have had to wait for two months, and a number have been six weeks or more in obtaining replies.

There are only eight prohibition enforcement agents at work in the entire Eastern District of Missouri. Entire expenses for the St. Louis office during the six months of the present year have been less than $10,000.

Revenue which has accrued in St. Louis in that time under the department is estimated to be in excess of $175,000, as more than $25,000 in fines have been imposed in liquor cases in Federal Court here by Judge Faris, while excise taxes and penalties under the revenue laws, imposed by the 40th Revenue Department, are estimated to have been at least four times that amount for the same period. Exact figures were not available at the office of the Collector of Internal Revenue, but it was estimated that probably one-third of the $140,000 referred to has been collected.

Considerable complaint also has been aimed at Howell, because he has handled so much of the work of his office from Kansas City, by liquor dealers who assert that it means the removal of the whisky market in Missouri from St. Louis to Kansas City. They say that prospective purchasers of whisky can go to Kansas City, obtain permits and buy the whisky in Kansas. City more cheaply and with considerably less delay, than by obtaining the permits by mail and then completing the transaction here.

New regulations concerning the handling, prescribing and selling of whisky here are expected to result from the investigation.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD DROPS 10 PER CENT OF EMPLOYEES

By the Associated Press.
PHILADELPHIA, July 20.—The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. announced yesterday that to bring about efficiency in the operating forces and to curtail expenses as far as practicable, it has been found necessary to effect a reduction of approximately 10 per cent in the number of employees in the Eastern region of the system.

"Many of these men will be needed at other points on the system," the announcement said, "particularly in the central region, and in and about Pittsburgh, and every endeavor will be made to find places for as many as possible."
The statement made no reference to changes in other regions comprising the Pennsylvania system. While the announcement did not specify the classes of employees to be dropped, it was said by Pennsylvania officials that the majority of the changes would be among men in repair shops, car cleaners and clerks in the shops and in general offices. It was estimated that between 11,000 and 12,000 employees in the Eastern region would be affected.

GIRL, 13, KNOCKED DOWN IN HOME BY BURGLAR

She Is Rendered Unconscious by Blow on Head—Other Robberies Reported.

Awakened from an afternoon nap by a burglar who was ransacking her home, Genevieve Webb, 13 years old, of 5536 Wells avenue, daughter of Mrs. P. L. Webb, was struck on the head and rendered unconscious by a blow from a brass knob torn from the bed by the burglar at 4 p. m. yesterday.

Mrs. Webb had gone downtown and the daughter was home alone at the time. She did not get a look at the intruder, she said, as he struck her as she jumped up from the bed after she had been awakened by a noise. The thief fled almost immediately and dropped silverware and jewelry valued at $150. The girl suffered a scalp wound.

Mrs. Adelaide O'Keefe of 310 North Channing avenue told the police that while she took a nap in her home between 2 and 5 p. m. yesterday a burglar entered and stole a bag containing $38 and six rings valued at $200 from the bosom of her shirt waist.

Whisky Part of Loot.
Twelve quarts of whisky were taken by burglars in the home of Orin Putnam, 5027 Vernon avenue, during the absence of the family yesterday.

A son, Roger, told the police his parents were out of town and he would not know what else was taken until they returned. The house was ransacked.

At the home of George Marloeks, 4517 Claxton avenue, burglars stole jewelry valued at $150 yesterday evening.

The homes of Isaac Cook, 3 Horstense place, and Dr. George M. Tuttle, 4917 Maryland avenue, closed for the summer vacation period, were turned topsy-turvy by burglars who ransacked the two places some time between Sunday and last night, the police were told.

At the home of Dr. Tuttle the burglars used a large cooking spoon as a "jimmy" to pry the lock on a rear door. They left the spoon in the kitchen. A basement door at the Cook home was forced.

Police will not be able to learn what was taken from either place until the families return to the city.

Druggist Robbed of $380.
Four men driving an automobile stopped in front of the drug store of Jacob Lieberstein, 2330 North Union boulevard, at 11 p. m. yesterday. Three of them got out and entered the store and one remained at the steering wheel. The three who entered the store drew revolvers and held up Lieberstein and while two of them kept him covered the third went to an open safe and took $380. They escaped in the machine.

Two men with revolvers held up Walter Carwonski in the saloon of Carwonski and Lencowski, 2700 North Taylor, as he was preparing to close for the night at 11:30 p. m. yesterday. They took $100 from his pockets and $77 from the cash register.

Carwonski told the police that one of the men, described as a "fat, round-faced man of 25 years," had been in the saloon at 6 p. m. and had bought a drink. There were several other customers in the place at that time, he reported, and the man walked out, returning several hours later.

"Truck burglars" are credited by the police with having carried away clothes and bottled goods valued at $500 from the store of Paul Rutstein, 2246 South Thirty-ninth street, early yesterday.

$410 in Alcohol Taken.
Officials of the James Forbes Tea and Coffee Co., 908 Clark avenue, reported to the police last night that an inventory taken of their stock had demonstrated that burglars who invaded the place last Saturday evening had stolen two drums of alcohol valued at $410. The drums were taken from the stock on the third floor, down an elevator to the first floor and thence out into an alley.

A desk in the office of the concern was also rifled and $4 taken. The concern employs a watchman.

He reported last Saturday having found a pair of mohair trousers, a silk shirt and a $9 straw hat on the elevator used by the thieves. Police believe these were laid aside by one of the burglars so they would not be ruined in moving the drums. He apparently had no test to give, they say, and left his good clothes behind.

Suitings and bottled goods valued at $2400 were stolen by "truck burglars" who "cleaned out" the ladies' tailoring establishment of Fred Altman, 4473 Olive street, early today.

The police found the front door "jimmied" and open at 8:10 a. m. and the place looted. Neighbors told of hearing an automobile in front of the shop earlier in the morning.

Second Member of Kosciuszko Squadron to Be Lost in Retreat Before Bolsheviks.

WARSAW, July 20.—Another American aviator serving with the Kosciuszko Squadron is missing. Capt. Arthur Kelly of Richmond, Va., a pilot, started on a flight over the Bolshevik lines five days ago and nothing has been heard of him since.

No trace has yet been found of the whereabouts of Capt. Merion Cooper of Jacksonville, Fla., who has been missing since he started a flight July 13. How Much is a Million?

The moment you mention a million dollars to some people, they are antagonistic.

They imagine that a million dollars represents a tremendous part of the national wealth.

Instead it represents only one penny for each inhabitant of our country.

Swift & Company last year had an output of 5,500,000,000 pounds. A profit of one cent per pound would have resulted in $55,000,000.

The actual net profit was $14,000,000 or one-fourth of what we would have made had the profit been at the rate of 1 cent a pound.

An average profit of only a fraction of a cent per pound indicates a highly competitive condition in the industry and also proves our assertion that packer profits have practically no effect on prices.

DECISION IN METHUDY SUIT EXPECTED IN WEEK

Mrs. Methudy, at Conclusion of Evidence Seemed Confident of Winning.

Final testimony in the divorce case wherein Mrs. Edna Methudy is contesting the suit for divorce brought by her husband, Eugene R. Methudy, president of the Methudy Tire and Rubber Co., was concluded yesterday, and Circuit Judge Calhoun took the matter under advisement. Fourteen days have been consumed in hearing evidence in the case.

Randolph Laughlin, attorney for Mrs. Methudy, stated that he expected that a final decision may be handed down by next Monday.

Methudy was recalled to the stand yesterday afternoon and introduced testimony in rebuttal of charges that he had struck his wife and told her that he did not want children. He said he might have pushed her away at some time, but denied he had ever struck her.

Thomas H. Moore, manager of the clubhouse of the Midland Valley Country Club, and Estelle Moss, formerly employed at the Methudy apartment, also testified yesterday. Moore testified that Mrs. Methudy had remained at the clubhouse on four different nights with no member of her family accompanying her. Mrs. Methudy testified last week that she had never remained at the clubhouse unless some member of her family was present.

Emil J. Dienst and his wife, father and mother of Mrs. Methudy, testified that their daughter had spent the night on a cot in their room on Aug. 31 last. This was the night whereon, Methudy's petition stated, she had been seen to enter a room in the clubhouse with Ozro Dixon.

Mrs. Methudy seemed confident of winning her suit when the case finally closed, and laughed and conversed with her attorneys and court reporters. She said she had merely contested the suit to protect her own name.

MAJOR GOES ON TRIAL THURSDAY FOR THE ESCAPE OF BERGDOLL

Commandant of Governor's Island Disciplinary Barracks and Two Sergeants in Court Martial.

NEW YORK, July 20.—Major J. E. Hunt, commandant of the disciplinary barracks at Governor's Island, and two sergeants will be put on trial by court martial there, Thursday, as a consequence of the escape of Grover C. Bergdoll, convicted deserter. Bergdoll got away on May 20 and still is at large. He was serving a five years sentence at Castle Williams.

The two "non-coms" are Sergeants York and O'Hara. They were Bergdoll's guards when he was allowed to depart from his prison to go after a sum of money he claimed to have hidden in Maryland while a fugitive from justice before his arrest and trial.

The Federal Grand Jury, a month after Bergdoll's escape, included in its findings a recommendation of court martial for Maj. Hunt, York and O'Hara. Indictments were returned against three Bergdoll brothers and Mrs. Bergdoll; James E. Romig, former magistrate in Philadelphia and confidant of the family; Eugene Stieker, who drove Bergdoll's car when he fled; Alfred S. Mitchell, who is said to have provided a car for the escape of Erwin Bergdoll, one of the brothers, and Harry Schuh, former bookkeeper in the Bergdoll brewery. The Grand Jury also censured D. Clarence Gibbons of Philadelphia, Samuel T. Ansell and Edward Bailey, Bergdoll's Washington counsel, for "gross carelessness in connection with the episode."

MARTIAL LAW PROCLAIMED ALONG POLISH GERMAN BORDER

Action Follows Arrest of Communists Accused of Spreading "Defeatist" Propaganda in Poland.

WARSAW, July 20.—Martial law was proclaimed along the Polish-German frontier yesterday after the Polish military had stopped a detachment of 50 uniformed Germans endeavoring to cross the frontier west of Posen. The proclamation also followed arrest of Communists in Posen who were accused of placarding the city with signs reading "Poland will fall."

It was said the Communists were sympathizers with a German faction which designed to seize Posen if the Bolsheviks should threaten Warsaw. Within the last few days Communists have been arrested at Warsaw, Lemberg and Lodz. The authorities confiscated a factory where weapons and other arms were being manufactured.

RUBBER STAMP AMUSES THIEF

Burglar Leaves Imprints Throughout Home.

A burglar who apparently operated at leisure in the home of Max A. Sondregger, 2355 Louisiana avenue, amused himself by taking a rubber stamp with Sondregger's name and stamping the linen, books and wall paper in the house. Sondregger returned yesterday from a vacation found the interior of his home bearing his stamped signature all over the place.

A Kodak valued at $50 was all that was taken.

Widow of Former Governor Dies. JUNCTION CITY, Kan., July 20.—Mrs. Charlotte Richardson Cutler Harvey, widow of John M. Harvey, early Governor of Kansas, died at her home near Ogden, Kan., last night. She was 86 years old.

HOPE FOR EIGHT MEN ENTOMBED IN MINE AFTER GIVEN UP

PITTSBURGH, July 20.—The body of one of the nine men who were entombed yesterday by an explosion in a mine at Renton, 15 miles from here, was recovered by the Bureau of Mines Rescue Team early today. Hope for the rescue of the other eight was practically abandoned when the rescuers, after a trip through a section of the wrecked mine, said the force of the explosion was general.

The body recovered this morning was buried, and leaders of the rescue crew said they believed it would be impossible to establish the identity of the victim.

Members of the crew were lowered down the 500-foot shaft in a temporary cage. They were forced to dig their way through a mass of debris and then make a passage through five mine cars, which were wrecked near the bottom of the shaft. After a struggle of many hours the crew finally entered the mine level. Near the body was found.

When it became evident that the explosion had wrecked the entire mine, which covers an area of about one-half square mile, the crew came to the surface, reported that further progress was impossible until they had cleared a way through the level, and expressed the opinion that the eight missing men had been killed by the explosion.

TWO CHILDREN BITTEN BY DOG; POLICEMAN KILLS IT

Boy and Girl Placed Under Special Treatment and Carcass Is Being Examined.

Two children were bitten by a dog owned by Mrs. Elizabeth Allen, 3444 Texas avenue, before a policeman killed it yesterday. The children bitten were Victoria Fleischmann, 6 years old, 3429 South Broadway, bitten on the right hip; and Edward Horn, 11, 2421 South Jefferson avenue, right leg.

Patrolman Charles Dabin, Wyoming street district, reported he was attracted to Jefferson avenue and Potomac street by the screams of the children and running there found the dog chasing a group of boys and girls. When he put himself between the dog and the children, he said, the animal attacked him. He kicked it off until he could draw his revolver and wound the animal. It afterwards ran towards the Allen home and was killed by a second shot in the rear of the head.

The carcass of the dog was ordered examined by the City Bacteriologist, and the children placed under special treatment for their wounds. The policeman reported the dog was licensed but not muzzled.

MAN, WHO CUT WOMAN'S THROAT, GETS 99-YEAR SENTENCE

John Russo pleaded guilty in the Criminal Court yesterday afternoon to murder in the first degree and was sentenced to 99 years in the penitentiary.

Russo, on April 15, 1920, cut the throat of Teba Newman at Sixteenth and Chestnut streets. The woman had come here with him from Terre Haute, Ind. After a stay of a few days at a Market street hotel she was found dead, along with several hundred dollars from Russo's trunk. When he met her on the street he charged her with taking the money. She laughed at him and slapped his face. He pursued her with a razor, intending, as he said, to scar her face, but he cut her throat and she died at the City Hospital.

WOMEN FIGHT WITH FISTS ON STREET CORNER

Police Interfere After One Suffers Cut Eye When Glasses are Broken.

A street fight between Mrs. Mary Maus, 22 years old, 4622 North Broadway, and Bernice West, 16 years old, 1949 North Eleventh street, at Broadway and Angelica street, at 5 p. m. yesterday, was stopped by the police after Mrs. Maus had been severely pummeled by the younger girl.

Police were told the two formerly had been neighbors. They met at the corner last night. Mrs. Maus accused Bernice of spreading false gossip about her in the neighborhood where they formerly lived. This was followed, the police say, by a slap in the face by Mrs. Maus. After the slap Bernice squared away and landed a right jab between the eyes. The blow broke Mrs. Maus' glasses and cut her in the eye. A left to the jaw cut her lips and that was followed by a rain of blows that almost ended the fight. Police interference prevented a knockout.

Mrs. Maus was taken to a doctor's office where cuts on her face, lips, cheek, chin and eyes were dressed. The girl was taken to the police station, but later turned over to her parents, who promised to have her in juvenile court if necessary.

$103,388 JUDGEMENT AGAINST FORMER BANKER IS UPHELD

Former President of Defunct Bank Must Return Investment to Associate.

A judgment of $103,388 against John E. Franklin, former president of the defunct Bankers' Trust Co., which went into the hands of a receiver in 1914, was sustained by the Missouri Supreme Court yesterday. The judgment was based on a verdict obtained in the Circuit Court by Harry C. Morrow, a banker, of Whitehall, Ill.

Morrow alleged that he was induced to take charge of a department of the company and invest large sums of money in stock. It was represented to him, he alleged, that the company would be liquidated in 12 months.

The Supreme Court held that the profits of the company were fictitious and imaginary. The transaction was denounced in an opinion handed down by Judge Graves.

NORTH DAKOTA BANK ROBBED

MINNEAPOLIS, N. D., July 20.—Five men early today dynamited and robbed the Bank of Oberon, N. D., near here, and escaped with $29,000 in cash and Liberty bonds. The vault and safe of the bank were wrecked. It was said that robbers were heading east in a large automobile.

All wires into the town were cut, preventing a report of the robbery to outside points until noon.

Includes Establishment of Military Districts to Protect Subjects From Bolsheviks.

HONOLULU, July 20.—The Council of Allied Premier at Spa has recognized Japan's right to occupy Nikolaevsk and the northern portion of the island of Saghalien, and to establish military governments in those districts to protect the lives and property of Japanese subjects from the Bolsheviks, according to information from Viscount Chinda to the Japanese Government, and conveyed here from Toki in special cable dispatches to Nippon Jiji, Japanese language newspaper.

Sporadic fighting has occurred between Japanese troops and Bolsheviks at Nikolaevsk which is on the coast of Siberia, in the Province of Primorsk, Saghalien Island, off Nikolaevsk, and separated from the mainland by the Amur Gulf and the Gulf of Tartary; also has been the scene of Bolshevik activities. JURORS ORDERED NOT TO ATTEND CORK ASSIZES

Sinn Fein Executive Says No Self-Respecting Irishman Will Participate.

CORK, July 20.—When the Court of Assizes opened here yesterday only 12 of the 296 jurors were present and the court was deserted except for the police and military officials. It was necessary to postpone the inquest into the death of Commissioner Smyth of the Royal Irish Constabulary, who was killed late Saturday night in the country club.

The assize jurors had received the following notice from the Sinn Fein executive:

"With reference to holding an English court in this city behind barbed wire, sand bags and bayonets, the executive reminds you that no self-respecting Irishman will participate in the proceedings. You therefore are ordered not to attend the court."

At a meeting of special jurors the following resolution was adopted: "This meeting records its condemnation of the gross and criminal neglect of the British Government in taking no measure to inquire into and punish the wanton misconduct of a large number of the men of the Shropshire regiment in willfully damaging and looting property in this city and also on outrages committed by Government agents on the night of March 10-11, and failure to bring to justice the murderers of the late Lord Mayor MacCurrian; that we enter our public protest that the existing Government has ceased to govern or protect individual life and property and we hereby resolve to abstain from attendance for the coming assizes and call upon the jurymen to adopt the same course."

The military authorities yesterday issued a report concerning Sunday night disturbances in which it is stated that unarmed soldiers and policemen off duty were ill-treated. It says shots were fired at unarmed soldiers in Kings street and that a party of six officers and 62 men and two lorries and an armored car were sent into the city. They were fired on at several points by civilians. The fire was returned in many cases.

Meals Less Than Nine Cents.

By Associated Press. ELGIN, Ill., July 20.—Less than nine cents a meal is all it costs to feed 110 inmates and 283 employees of the Elgin State Hospital last year. The annual report of Chief Clerk R. D. Marsh, completed today shows that the average cost of food per person was but 26 cents a day.

Eight children living in the neighborhood gave a show at 3507 South Spring Avenue last week and earned $34.50 for the Post-Dispatch Pure Milk and Free Ice Fund. The children were: Lenora and Viola Loratta Dippel, Milton Schmidt, Albert von Ahnen and Frank Tullman.
This is the second show they have given this summer, the first one, several weeks ago, earning $2.60. In addition to their performances they sold enormous amount of work necessary to raise an amount like this by an amateur theatrical, and the children deserve much credit for their efforts.

A miscellaneous program which ranks among the best performed of the season was presented Spellingmyer, Dorothy Ahaus, Catherine Schaefer, Marguerite Bickel and Ruth Hillebrandt. They earned $20.50, which they donated to help the babies through the hot weather.

Opal Logsdon, Genieve and Elizabeth Vinerman, the Repp twins, Thilla Kroma, Edna Korman and Florence and Bernice Goercks gave a show at 4335 Ashland Avenue and made $18.40.

A fourth successful show of last week was the benefit given at 3314 der, Harry Venok, Alice and Edith Schneider and Elizabeth Lampe. It netted $14.05.

A little picture show at 1414 Goodfellow Avenue under the management of Stuart Crockett, Robert and Billy Fuchs, Helen and Ruth Moel-ler, Linda Polaris and Sarah Garland, made $5.

Lucretia Belleville, 6523 Chamberlain Avenue; Esther and Florence
Hoffman, 6534 Chamberlain Avenue, and Agnes McMahon, 1011 Leona Avenue, University City, had a lemonade, ice cream and popcorn stand and earned $2.75 for the Milk and Ice Fund. They popped their own corn and their stand was well patronized by children and adults from the neighborhood.

Three cash contributions in addition to the foregoing benefits aided in bringing the fund to a total of $1870.27. Julian Jackson sent a check for $10; "One Who Loves Babies" gave $1, and $2 and an interesting letter were received from Babette Theresa and Mary Louise Freund, 2135A Russell Avenue, 18-months-old twins, who are appreciative of the value of good milk, and wish to aid needy children in obtaining their share.

Eight children from the neighborhood presented a show at 1350 North
Garrison Avenue which earned $6.50.
They were Sadie, Mary, Willie and Ruth Zuckor, Katie and Lottie
Kalmes, Clara Leve and Bertha Cohen.

A lawn show at 542 Sunnyside Avenue, Webster Groves, on the evening of July 14, brought $3.50 for the babies. The children who managed the benefit were: Betty Crippene, Hazel Allen, Helen Fritz, Katherine Crippen and Doris Allen.

A group of five boys on the 6300 block of Queens Avenue gave a show which they donated to the fund. The boys were: Gerard Schmitt, Milton Lottman, Gibson De Lary, Norman Rosenback and Jack De Lary.
A cash contribution of $2 was received from "Rosemary."

CUBAN IMPORTERS FAIL TO ACCEPT SHIPMENTS OF RICE

Cargoes Valued at More Than $20-000,000 Held Up in Harbor at Havana.

By the Associated Press.
HAVANA, July 20.—Several of Havana's leading bankers and a committee representing the California
Rice Association conferred yesterday on the serious credit situation brought about by the alleged failure of certain Cuban importers to accept rice shipments valued at more than $20,000,000 now held up in harbor here, which, it is claimed, were shipped under contract.

No statement was given out by the conference, but the bankers are reported to have demanded that merchants protect their paper and to have intimated that the island's credit might be seriously involved, as American exporters are becoming dubious of the good faith of certain Cuban importers.

A member of the rice association declared that for the past years
American firms have been shipping to Cuba under the same terms and conditions which now exist, but never been faced by such a situation.

"The importers are failing to accept their orders for the first time and the only conclusion we can come to is that it is due to the breaks in the market," he said. "However, the goods were shipped in good faith and American firms expect merchants here to meet their obligations in spite of the drops in the market."

Girl Missing From Sister's Home.
Mildred Gann, 15 years old, who made her home with a sister, Mrs. Leona Oakley, 4124 A Blaine avenue, is being sought by the police following her disappearance last Friday. The sister said the girl had been employed in a store downtown and Friday at 7 a. m. had departed, as usual, ostensibly to go to work. She did not appear at the store and has not been heard from since.

Girls, Don't Wash Your Face
Use Liska cold cream instead (you have never used anything like it). Just try it once and you will never be without it. Soap and water has a tendency to make the skin rough and does not cleanse the skin as thoroughly as Liska cold cream. To prove it make this test: Wash your face with soap and water, dry thoroughly, then apply Liska cold cream. Massage it well into the skin, then wipe off the superfluous cream with a soft white cloth, examine the skin, softens and beautifies the skin. For winter or after a dusty skin try it. Just compare Liska cold cream with any other you have ever used and you will need no further argument to convince you that it's the best. It's out in tubes, the only sanitary way, try it tonight. You will be delighted. At toilet counters everywhere, including Wolf-Wilkin, J. & B. Smith, Johnson, and the Eastern Store.

ARRESTED HORSE ALSO
LEXINGTON, Ky., July 20.—On grounds that it was used for transporting liquor in violation of the Volstead act, a horse which carried a man who had in a pocket a bottle of moonshine liquor has been seized at Fleming, Letcher County, prohibition headquarters here have been notified. W. S. Honeycutt, Knott County, was arrested on the transporting charge. Should Honeycutt be convicted, the horse will be sold and proceeds turned into the United States Treasury.

SUMMER "DEVILRY" PROMPTS CALL FOR COUNTY GRAND JURY

Judge Wurdeman Gives No Other Reason for Summoning May Panel.

Judge Wurdeman called today the St. Louis County grand jury that he has been promising to call for the last six months. It is not the special grand jury he was expected to call, but the regular May delayed.

When the Judge began promising to call one it was to investigate gambling in the county and, perhaps, finding out why the county officials did not stop it. The Judge refuses to tell what he is calling it for now. His only explanation is that an opportune time has arrived for calling it.

County officials say that while the Judge was promising to call a jury the gamblers quit and went away. Other people say they are still operating. Judge Wurdeman says nothing.

When the grand jury talk started it was understood that Gov. Gardner was going to send Attorney-General McAlister down to ask some questions. The Judge was asked if McAlister was coming. He just smiled.

Two weeks ago the Judge said he was going to call that jury right soon. He said then it was because there was "more devilry" in the summer than in the fall and winter.

Actually Removes Hair Roots—Something New!

(Harmless Method: "Works Like Magic")

To have the superfluous hairs come out, roots and all, before one's very eyes, sounds almost too good to be true. Yet many thousands of women have proved to their own satisfaction that this can be accomplished—easily, quickly, harmlessly—by means of the wonderful phenol process.

This method is not to be compared at all with any kind of powder or paste, nor with electrolysis or anything else. Nothing like it ever originated. It causes the hairs to come out entire, roots included, leaving the skin smooth and hairless as a baby's. Phenol is non-poisonous, non-irritating, non-painful—a child could safely use it. Get a small stick of phenol from your druggist today. Follow the simple instructions, and you will have a most agreeable surprise.

Cocoanut Oil Makes a Splendid Shampoo

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Multisided cocoanut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonsful will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Multisided cocoanut oil shampoo at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces are enough to last everyone in the family for months.

RATE PLEA OF LACLEDE GAS CO. BEING HEARD

Company Seeks 15 Cents 1000 Feet Increase to All Its Customers.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
JEFFERSON CITY, July 20.—The Laclede Gas Light Co. today began to present to the Public Service Commission evidence of its need for an increase in rates from 50, 60 and 55 cents per 1000 feet to 65, 75 cents and $1. Household consumers pay at the highest rate.

Former Judge Daniel G. Taylor of St. Louis made his first appearance as attorney for the company. Isaac H. Lionberger has represented the company in such hearings for many years.

J. F. Bulfin, auditor of the company, explained exhibits purporting to show that the company, after paying its operating expenses and fixed charges in the year from July 1, 1919 to June 30, 1920, had a residue of only $11,935.46 to apply on dividends on common stock.

The amount needed to continue its practice of several years of paying 7 per cent on common stock was $749,000.

Bulfin stated that if the company did not obtain the increase asked for that it would lack at the end of the year $585,000 of enough to pay its interest on bonds. The bond interest last year was $1,323,250.23. The increase in income which would be provided by the rates desired, Bulfin said, would be $1,394,123. This would be sufficient, he said, to provide a residue sufficient to pay only 2.64 per cent on common stock. This, he said, was caused by the fact that the company expected to pay increased prices for coal and oil with which it manufactures gas and that it expected that its labor cost of $1,600,000 last year would be increased 15 per cent.

Bulfin stated that the coke plant of the company, which is the largest process of gas manufacture, was being operated at only 90 per cent capacity, because of the inability to get coal. He said that the company has a contract for all its coal to be furnished by the Consolidation Coal Co., but the company has been unable to get cars in which to ship and that the company has been forced to buy coal on the open market at a higher price.

NO APPRAISAL OF LACLEDE PROPERTY HAS EVER BEEN MADE

The Laclede Gas Light Co., which is asking for its second increase in rates within a year, has outstanding securities of $39,300,000. No inventory appraisal ever has been made by the Public Service Commission to determine the value of the property upon which those securities have been issued.

An examination of the history of the preferred and common stock of the company reveals that in 1899 the company had $2,500,000 of preferred stock outstanding. In that year the company acquired the property of the St. Louis Gas and Electric Co., a competitor. It gave in payment $7,500,000 of bonds and $7,500,000 of common stock in the Laclede company, the first issue of that form of security.

It has been repeatedly asserted by the city and no one denied by the company that the physical valuation of property of the St. Louis Gas and Electric Co. did not exceed $7,500,000, for which sum bonds were issued, and that the $7,500,000 in common stock thus was a bonus to the bond purchasers.

Increases in Dividends.
No dividend was paid on this common stock until 1898 when a 3 per cent dividend was paid. This rate was continued for two years when it was increased to 4 per cent. That rate was continued until 1905 when the dividend was again increased to 5 per cent. A still further increase to 6 per cent was made in 1909 and to 6 1/2 per cent in 1910. The effect of this increasing return was to give the common stock a selling price upon stock exchanges, first of par and then of varying prices above par. The stock came to be looked upon as one of the best among public utilities of the country.

In 1911, it was announced that the company would declare a stock dividend of $1,200,000 and at the same time the rate of dividend on the common would be increased to 7 per cent. The effect was to send the price of the stock upon the New York stock exchange to 114.

The rate of 7 per cent was maintained from 1911 through 1918. During that period the company's return from rates paid by consumers of gas was sufficient not only to pay the 7 per cent on the common stock, but to accumulate about $1,200,000 surplus in the company's treasury. Accordingly, in January, 1917, the company declared a 10 per cent cash dividend upon its common stock in addition to the regular 7 per cent dividend. The company's prosperity was such that in a period of six years, ending in 1917, the common stock yielded 62 per cent or 10.2 per cent annually to all holders.

The common stock of the company now is $10,700,000. The original $7,500,000 was increased by sales between 1900 and 1911 of $2,000,000 for which the company asserts it received cash which was invested in the property. The 10 per cent stock dividend of 1911 added another $1,200,000.

It appears from this history that in 21 years ending in 1918 the company paid out total cash dividends of 124 1/2 per cent, or more than $10,000,000 on stock that the city contends originally was issued as a bonus.

The retention in the treasury of the two "melons," one of $1,200,000 cut in 1911, the other of $1,070,000 cut in 1917, would have provided a sum double the increase from higher rates the company now asserts it needs to conduct its business.

One of the complaints of the company at this time in support of its contention of the city that the application for increase of rates is not now or never has been entitled to earn anything on per cent on its common stock. It is common stock.

QUITE right, that neat glassine jacket isn't just for looks. It protects your Chesterfields from the weather—seals in the flavor of those wonderful Turkish and Domestic tobaccos—keeps them in primeshape for smoking. Rain or shine, winter or summer, Chesterfields always "satisfy!"

Even the hardest play can't wear them out as much as the washboard does SLIDING for base—shiny—marbles—duck on a rock—how that boy does grind the dirt right into his clothes!

Little sister makes mud pies—and even the baby's clothes get dust and dirt ground into them in spite of all your watching.

By the time Monday comes around there's a great heap of grimy little garments—garments that used to need hours of rubbing and scrubbing and boiling before they would "come clean."

That weekly rubbing on the washboard wore out the fabric faster than the hardest playing could have done.

Make them last twice as long

You need no longer waste your strength and wear out the children's clothes on the ruinous washboard.

You just soak them clean with Rinso, the new form of soap in granules. You do away with all the old boiling and hard rubbing.

Just soak the dirty little play garments overnight in the bubbling, cleansing Rinso suds, or for three hours in the morning.

Then you rins them! And they are clean! Rinso has done all the work, it has loosened all the dirt. Only the most soiled spots, cuffs, knees of little trousers, will need a light rubbing between your hands.

All the work is saved—and the clothes are saved, too. For the Rinso granules are so rich in cleansing value that they loosen all the dirt while the clothes soak; yet they are so pure they cannot do the slightest injury.

Even in cold water Rinso cleans in the same wonderful way.

Order Rinso from your grocer today and follow the easy directions on the package. One package does a whole week's laundry.—Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass. (Makers of Lux.)

BRITAIN'S RUIN AIM OF LENINE, CHURCHILL SAYS

Official Declares Soviet Leader Is Trying to Spread Chaos to Hide Russia's Misery.

Correspondence of the Associated Press.

LONDON, June 23.—The Russian Soviet Government, through Nikolai Lenin, seeks "to start the British nation off on that same career of revolutionary violence which has made Russia such a jolly place to live in," Winston Churchill, Minister of War, declared in an article published in the Evening News, answering a report by a British labor delegation which visited Russia and a letter directed to the British people by Lenin.

Should the soviet system be established in England the War Minister believes that not only would freedom of the press and freedom of thought be swept away, but the English labor leaders themselves would "share the fate of Krensky, the Mensheviks and social revolutionaries in Russia."

The War Minister charged Lenin with having ruined his own country and said it was natural he should wish "to have all other nations reduced to the same level of misery. In order that his own carnage may be covered in the general chaos," wrote Churchill.

"Russia was on the threshold of victory. After all her struggles she was within reach of the goal. The Germans sent in Lenin, as poison gas is sent sealed in a cylinder, and he robbed her of the victory she had all but won and which she might have shared with us."

"A million Germans, released by his act of treachery, were let loose on the French and British fronts and nearly that number of British and French soldiers are dead or mutilated in consequence. Instead of victory he gave Russia shame and immeasurable disaster."

"Lenin destroyed the Russian republic. He dissolved the Russian Parliament. He had the bulk of its members hunted down and killed. He has robbed his country of victory, peace and freedom; and what has he given them in exchange?"

"Russia, the great food-producing center of the world, wracked with famine; the towns depopulated to half their numbers; the workmen scattered, destroyed and the rest cowed or demoralized; hundreds of thousands of people driven to the woods and mountains to form 'green guards' like Robin Hood in the Middle Ages; the railways on which the whole economic civilization of these great regions depend, sinking hopelessly into absolute stagnation."

"Only the peasant with his rifle in his village guards the hard-won produce of his individual toil, refuses to sell the fruits of his labor for worthless paper money and keeps alive the old Russian love of hearth and home. 'The egotism of the peasant,' says Lenin, 'must now be broken.'

"This, then, is the man whom the crazy portion of the Socialist party has been worshipping. He has now revealed his measure and his mentality to the British public and he appeals to them to create in Britain that enslaved, infected, starving and venomous Beldam to which he has reduced the noble and might Russian state and nation."

Why Cord Tires

FOR seventeen years motorists have been buying cord tires—since one of the factories of the United States Rubber Company built the first cord tire.

Ask the average motorist today why he buys cord tires and he will tell you because they give him more miles for his dollar—on the average.

Experienced motorists have come to expect something more from cord tires than merely "more miles on the average."

Watch an experienced motorist buying a tire sometime when you happen to run across one in a tire shop.

You will probably see him feeling the tire the dealer hands him—not consciously, perhaps, but as if from force of habit.

Sometimes he will ask to see another tire of the same make.

Experience has taught him that even tires of the same make may vary considerably.

One of the reasons—the biggest reason—why the United States Rubber Company began its enlarged production of cord tires was because it realized that cord tires could be made to deliver more miles—not only on the average—but all the time.

This company has spent more money than any other tire concern on earth in making its Cord Tires uniform.

And by uniformity is meant not taking the exceptional tire and trying to find out what made it exceptional, but building every tire you build to the highest standards of quality.

The car owner who seeks United States standards in tubes is well paid in more mileage for his tires. U. S. Red Tubes, U. S. Grey Tubes.

PURE CANE GRANULATED

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY. Be prepared for the heavy coming season and have enough sugar on hand to take care of any preserving need. Price, from all indications, will be higher. Why not make a saving worth while at this time, and then be free from all worry as to whether or not you will be able to supply your needs in sugar on the spur of the moment at preserving time. The present cost of sugar in carlots is considerably greater than the price at which we are retailing this same article.

ST. LOUIS COUNTY GIRL BRIDE IN ELOPEMENT

Daughter of Overland Justice and Chicago Salesman Wed July 3 at Webb City, Mo.

Miss Helen G. Howe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Howe of Overland Park, St. Louis County, and H. Edwin Rose of Chicago were secretly married in Webb City, Mo., July 3, and on their return to Miss Howe's home two days later arrangements were made for another ceremony in the presence of the bride's parents. The first ceremony was performed by a justice of the peace.

Miss Howe's father is a justice of the peace at Overland Park. He and his wife objected to the form of the ceremony, and last Friday a second one was performed by the Rev. F. M. Weddell, an Episcopalian minister at University City.

Rose and Miss Howe had known each other for about a year, and in June Miss Howe went to Joplin to visit friends. Rose, who is a traveling salesman, followed here there, and they went to Webb City, a short distance away, to be married.

The couple walked into the Howe residence July 5 and announced their marriage. Rose served as a Captain with the Fifth Division of the A. E. F. He is 25 years old and a graduate of the law school of Northwestern University, Chicago. Mrs. Rose is 23 years old and is a graduate of Forest Park College.

Just now Mrs. Rose is living with her parents while her husband is traveling. He will return from his present trip in a few days, and it is expected they will make their home here later.

Last autumn when a former army aviator conducted flights in an airplane here at "so much a minute," Miss Howe made several trips.

CHANGES IN NAMES OF 40 STREETS TO BE SUBMITTED

Cutoffs Have Left Streets With Two Names and One Name for Two Streets.

Changes in the names of about 40 streets will be submitted to the Board of Aldermen after the summer recess by Director of Streets and Sewers Talbert. The construction of various cutoffs about the city has created situations in which the same street bears one name for part of its length and another name for its remaining distance, or, in some instances, two streets bear the same name. For instance, Twelfth street has been connected with Lafayette avenue by a cutoff at Southard street, creating two Lafayette avenues paralleling one another for two blocks. The same is true of Twelfth street by the construction of a cutoff connecting it with South Twelfth street.

Residents on Walton avenue between Pershing and McPherson avenues have pointed out that this section of Walton avenue is an isolated section and that a different name from Walton should be provided for it. Talbert says that he will welcome suggestions for names where new names are necessary.

PRIEST SUES TO RECOVER SALARY AND MONEY LOANED

Former Pastor of Wentzville Church Says He Advanced Money to Aki School.

The Rev. Father John H. Kretcher, former pastor of St. Patrick's Catholic Church at Wentzville, St. Charles County, has filed suit against the church trustees for a total of $2185, alleged to be due for salary and expenses during the period of his nine years' pastorate, which ended three years ago. The trustees are C. A. Goellner, Anton Mispagel and Herman Schroeder. Archbishop Glennon, as head of the diocese, is also named as a defendant. The Archbishop today said he was not fully informed of the facts in the case.

Father Kretcher said that of his salary, which was $800 a year, $1615 was in arrears during the nine years, and that he had to advance $570 from his salary toward the expenses of the parochial school.

COMPANY MUST PAY INSURANCE ON MAN WHO KILLED HIMSELF

Suit of Mrs. Ida J. Trembley Sustained by Missouri Supreme Court.

Mrs. Ida J. Trembley, 5316 Pershing avenue, yesterday was sustained by the Missouri Supreme Court in her suit to collect an insurance policy for $5000 in the Fidelity and Casualty Insurance Co. of New York for the death of her husband, Charles E. Trembley, a former president of the Real Estate Exchange, who shot and killed himself April 11, 1916. The Court also allowed her $1017.50 in addition, sustaining the validity of the law which adds a penalty of 10 per cent and attorney's fees for vexatious delays in collecting insurance.

In Missouri the courts already have ruled that suicides can come under the head of accidental deaths.

G. O. P. QUESTIONNAIRE ON "HOUSECLEANING"

Candidates Asked by Association If They Favor Eliminating "Discredited" Politicians.

Members of the Association of Missouri Republicans, an organization which developed over the disclosures in the Lowden fund case and of which T. J. Hargadon of 5175 Enright avenue is chairman, yesterday sent out from its headquarters in the Victoria Building a questionnaire to candidates for political office, including committeemen, asking for their attitude on a thorough party "housecleaning."

Five queries are presented to the candidates, the first asking whether they favor the elimination of those who have discredited themselves in the public mind by the receipt or use of money and the second asking whether a general housecleaning is favored so that voters may know the "are" balloting for men worthy of support.

The third question is directed to ward committeemen, asking whether they will vote for State committeemen who will publicly espouse the party cleanup and who are not "tainted by the receipt of money" used to further any person's candidacy. The fourth asks whether candidates will demand that the national committeemen support the movement and the fifth question demands whether the candidate will vote for any State committeeman who is not pledged to clean house politically.

In the preamble, the objects of the association are set forth as not being for the support of any faction or candidate, but for the defeat of any person whose presence will handicap the Republican party at the polls. O. T. Remmers and Harry Sprague, lawyers and former members of the Legislature, are members of the Executive Committee of the association.

Why We Pack these Tubes in Waterproof Bags

When, after passing a final twenty-four hour test, Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are approved by the inspector, they are as nearly mechanically perfect and absolutely impervious to air as it is possible to make a tube.

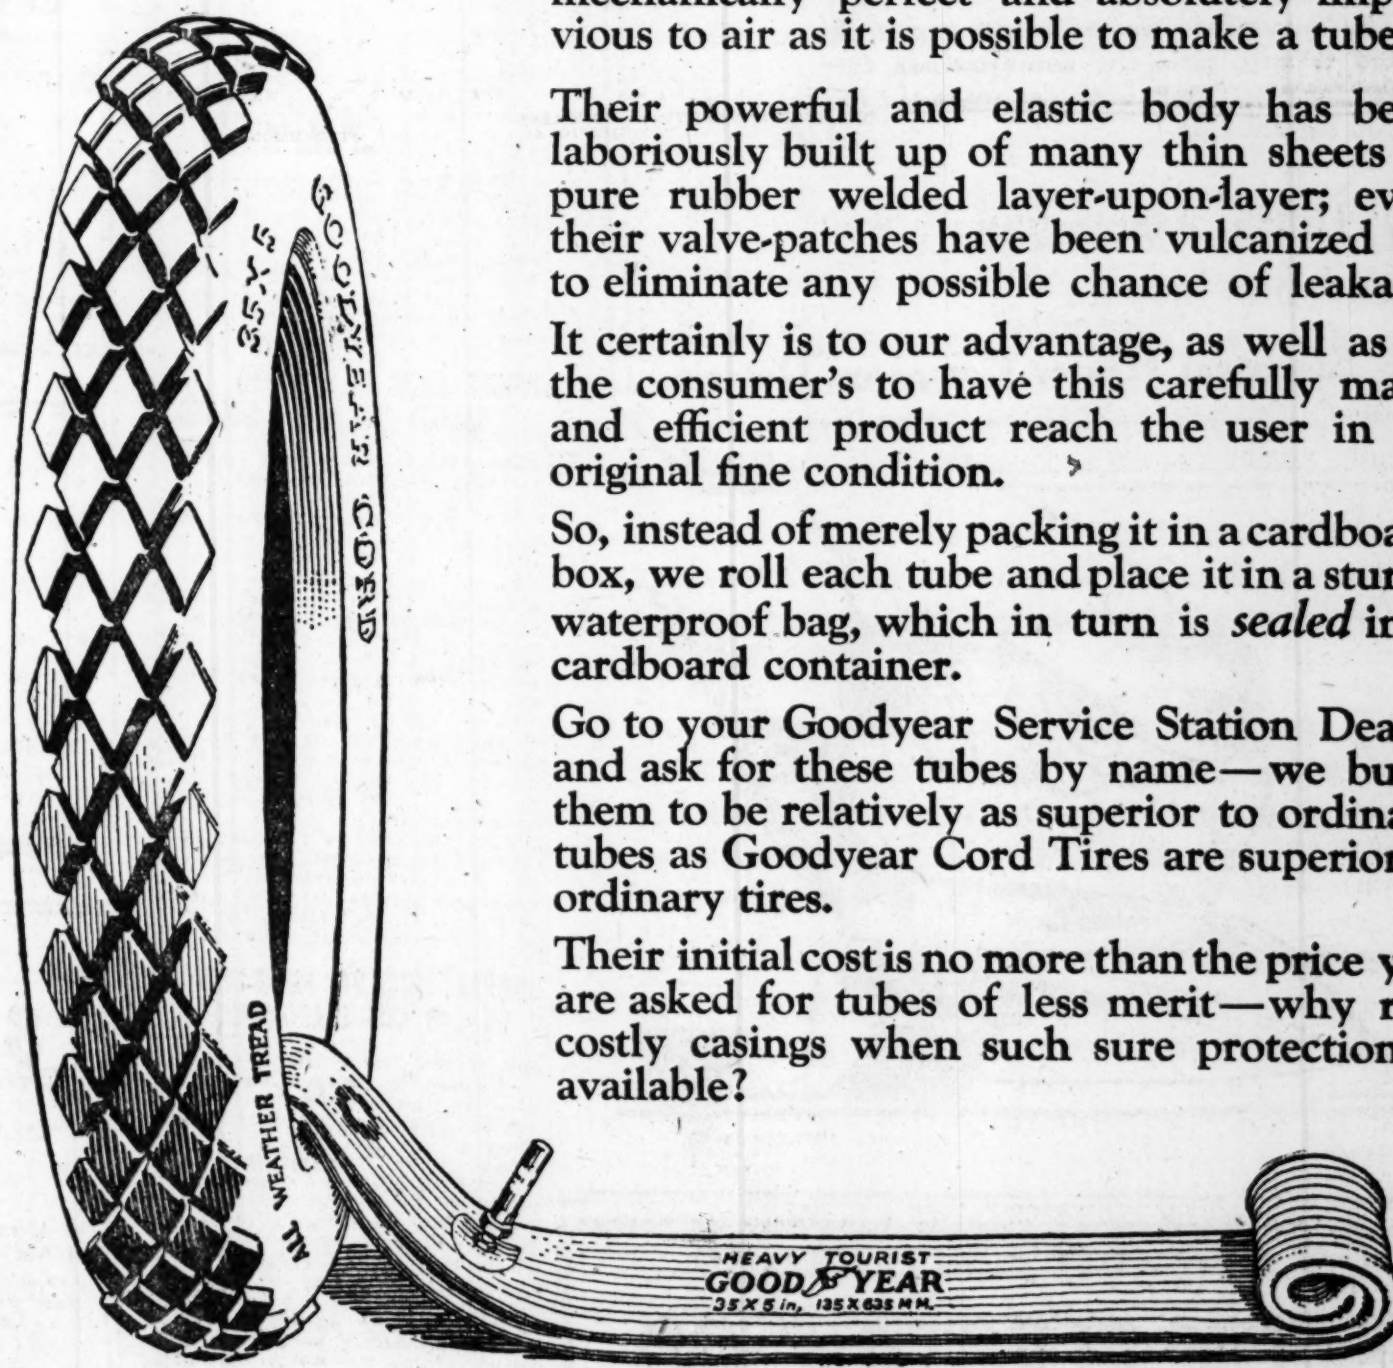

Their powerful and elastic body has been laboriously built up of many thin sheets of pure rubber welded layer-upon-layer; even their valve-patches have been vulcanized in, to eliminate any possible chance of leakage.

It certainly is to our advantage, as well as to the consumer's to have this carefully made and efficient product reach the user in its original fine condition.

So, instead of merely packing it in a cardboard box, we roll each tube and place it in a sturdy waterproof bag, which in turn is sealed in a cardboard container.

Go to your Goodyear Service Station Dealer and ask for these tubes by name—we build them to be relatively as superior to ordinary tubes as Goodyear Cord Tires are superior to ordinary tires.

Their initial cost is no more than the price you are asked for tubes of less merit—why risk costly casings when such sure protection is available?

30-DAY MORATORIUM PROBABLE IN BOLIVIA

American Contracts for Sanitation in Cities Will Be Respected, It Is Reported.

By the Associated Press. Lima, Peru, July 20.—The new Bolivian Government which took power after the overthrow of President Guerra probably will declare a 30-day moratorium for banks and commercial houses, according to dispatches from La Paz. It is announced that American contracts for sanitation service in Bolivian cities will be respected, but the proposed negotiations for a $10,000,000 loan, it is reported, will be abandoned. The most sanguinary fighting of the revolution, according to details reaching Lima, occurred at Sucre, the capital, when Republicans waged a street battle throughout July 12 until they received news that the situation was hopeless. Twenty persons were killed in this fighting. President Guerra, it appears from these details, remained in his private residence until midday of July 12, when the American Vice Consul escorted him to the American Legation.

Included in a party of deported persons which has just arrived at Arica are Carlos Montes, son of Gen. Montes; Enrique Pinedo, former Minister of Agriculture; Carlos Gutierrez, former Premier; Gen. Prudentino, former Minister of War; and Juan Munoz Reyes, former president of the Banco la Nacion. Gen. Ismael Montes, a former President of Bolivia, and at present in charge of the Bolivian Legation at Paris, has sent a lengthy cablegram to a friend in which he deplores the revolution, expressing regret that the big potash deal which was being negotiated will fall through as a result.

SILK SHIRTS STOLEN FROM LINES

Police Blame Youthful Thieves for West End Robberies.

Youthful thieves are said by the police to be responsible for the disappearance of silk shirts from two family clotheslines in the West End yesterday.

William E. Fish, 5920 Nina place, an attorney, reported that his wife had hung out five of his shirts on the line in the rear of the apartment. They were gone last night when she sought to take them inside. He valued the shirts at $45.

Daniel Minogue, 5742 Etzel avenue, reported a similar experience. Six of his shirts, valued at $65, disappeared from the line.

Police say that since the price of silk shirts had soared to the upper realms, housewives are wary of trusting the cleaning work to other than themselves.

Vardon and Ray To Play Here in Golf Exhibition

British "Pro" to Oppose Barnes and Partner at Sunset Hill Club in September.

Judge William Dee Becker, president of the Sunset Hill Country Club, has received word from the managers of the Harry Vardon-Ray exhibition tour, that the British professionals will be in St. Louis to play over the Sunset Hill course between Sept. 15 and 20. The exact date of their play will be determined by their itinerary.

James Barnes will be one of the Americans to oppose the British "pros," while Robert A. Gardner of Chicago, runner-up for the British amateur championship, last month, probably will be his partner.

Barnes has been granted permission by the local club to prolong his trip in the East several weeks in order to play in six special matches with the foreign stars. He is expected to arrive here next month. The local "pro" is defending his Shawnee open title at the tournament which opens today.

Accounts of all Vardon and Ray matches played in this country will be reported for the Post-Dispatch by Harry Vardon.

Century Works in Borrowed Shell

St. Louis Oarsmen Take Make-shift Practice When Boat Is Lost.

WORCESTER, Mass., July 20.—The failure of the favorite shell of the famous Century Boat Club four of St. Louis to arrive at Lake Quinsigamond yesterday, did not prevent the boys from getting into action. There was gloom around the quarters at the Quinsigamond Boat Club house where the St. Louis men are staying, until Harry Allen, formerly coach of the Century, but now directing the destinies of the North Boat Club of Worcester, put in his appearance.

Allen at once placed at the disposal of the visitors the Norton shell and the regular crew, which the Century admirers expect to win the senior four event in the Olympic tryouts, Saturday, rowed over the course.

The water was too choppy and the wind too strong for any real work and the men contented themselves with an easy spin over the route which they will follow in the championship race.

Oliver Belzer, bow, declared after the men returned to the boat house that the boys were never so confident of victory.

The Lake Quinsigamond course is no new to the St. Louis men for the four which will contest for the championship is the same as made such a wonderful record here last year.

The regatta officials got telegraph wires working in an effort to help them locate the missing boat. The Century men had a large gallery watching them when they went over the course yesterday and when they returned to the boat house they met many visitors, among them being Mayor Peter F. Sullivan of this city, who was introduced to each member of the St. Louis party.

Marshall Still Leads.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 20.—Frank J. Marshall of New York, United States chess champion, retained the lead in the chess masters' tournament here yesterday, defeating S. T. Sharp of Philadelphia in the ninth round. Charles Jaffe of New York won from Stasch Mlotkowski of Los Angeles and George G. Neidich of Cornell University scored against E. S. Jackson of Philadelphia.

The standing:

Player	Won	Lost
Marshall	6 1/2	2 1/2
Jaffe	6	3
Mlotkowski	5	4
Jackson	4	5
Sharp	3 1/2	5 1/2
Neidich	2	7

WADNER AND BENNETT WIN IN TENNIS EVENT

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 20.—L. H. Waldner, Chicago and Paul Bennett, Winnipeg, Man., won their opening singles matches at the Northwestern Tennis Tournament at Deep Haven Courts, Lake Minnetonka, yesterday.

Bennett took his preliminary round by default and won in the first round by defeating O. Flaten of Northfield, Minn., 6-4, 7-5. Waldner beat Kon Hayne, St. Paul, 6-0, 6-4, in the preliminary round.

Vincent Richards, Tonkars, N. Y., did not arrive as expected. Put now is expected here today.

SIoux CITY, July 20.—The sale of the Sioux City baseball club is imminent, according to a seemingly well founded story going the rounds among fans on the "inner circle" of baseball activities in Sioux City. The sale, which it is said, will be consummated possibly before Saturday, will transfer the club from the Sioux City Booster Athletic Association to a group of three or four men, one of whom will hold the major portion of the stock.

Western to Stick to Schedule.

OMAHA, Neb., July 20.—The Western League will not extend its 1920 season by adding 14 more games to the present schedule. This decision was made by President A. R. Tearney to whom the proposition was put by the league's club owners assembled here yesterday to consider the advisability of closing the season Oct. 1 instead of Sept. 19. President Tearney took the position that it was too late in the season to make any changes.

CINCINNATI, O., July 20.—"Knock out" Marx, Cincinnati, lightweight, was given the newspaper decision over "Babe" Picato, Newcastle, Tex., at the end of a 16-round bout here yesterday.

Shoulder to the Wheel

A Five Months' Record on the New York Central Lines

THE railroads have their shoulder to the wheel of commerce.

During the first five months of 1920, the New York Central Lines handled 3,862,579 loaded freight cars, 414,240 over the corresponding months of last year. This is a 12 1/2% increase.

Of bituminous coal alone there were loaded at mines on the New York Central Lines 263,888 cars, an increase of 59,089 cars, or 29% over the loading of the same months of 1919.

In the course of those same months about 42,000,000 passengers were carried, an increase of 6,000,000, or 17% over the number carried in the corresponding months of 1919.

Sheer determination and hard work have made these achievements possible in the face of strike conditions and despite the fact that rolling stock recently ordered, and costing close to $50,000,000, cannot be delivered to the New York Central until the Fall.

Unflagging effort can overcome some difficulties, but the fact remains that the demand for transportation exceeds the available facilities and equipment. The roads still have before them the task of catching up with the growth of the country which has gone ahead, while the railroads—financially and physically—for fifteen years have been almost stationary.

The answer depends on public recognition of the railroads as fundamental and planning in advance for the heavy needs of the future. Investment in railroad securities by the public generally, and particularly by manufacturers and shippers as a safeguard to their own transportation requirements, will make possible an adequate development program for the years to come.

I know that my retirement will make no difference in its cardinal principles, that it will always fight for progress and reform, never tolerate injustice or corruption, always fight demagogues of all parties, never belong to any party, always oppose privileged classes and public plunderers, never lack sympathy with the poor, always remain devoted to the public welfare, never be satisfied with merely printing news, always be drastically independent; never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory plutocracy or predatory poverty.

JOSEPH PULITZER.
April 10, 1907.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Three years ago the writer was in search of a place to live. At that time the matter of housing resolved itself into one of choice. There were numerous houses, flats or apartments in all sections of the city for rent.

The recent census figures show a very small population increase in St. Louis in 10 years, and it is reasonable to suppose that the increase has been distributed over the 10 years. In spite of this small increase in population we are stated to be facing a housing shortage. To the writer it seems that this alleged shortage is purely one produced by agreement among the realty holders of the city. Being engaged again in search for a place to live, the writer finds no difficulty in locating vacant houses, flats or apartments. The one difficulty encountered is finding a place of residence within reasonable figures. There are any number of vacant houses which are held in order to force a sale.

That there is a real hardship being perpetrated on those who rent property in this city cannot be denied, and the situation is one which merits legislative action. There are two benefits which could accrue from this state of affairs if sufficient legislative action were taken by the city Government. The latter is in need of subjects of taxation and in need of increased revenue. Therefore, let the city levy a special and heavy tax on all vacant residence property. There would then be a fruitful source of revenue and a splendid solution of the housing situation.

S. M.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Why send the long-haired gentry to criticize the Municipal Opera? Confine their activities to the winter season of Symphony concerts, fiddlers and acoustic pianists. Anyone who could not enjoy the fun in "The Mascot" would be out of line with the millions, who nightly laugh at the Chapman frolic.

We need relaxation, and to me, and also thousands, the Forest Park opera is wonderfully entertaining.

A. B. JONES.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Those who have the best interests of the municipal summer opera at heart will view with alarm the proposal to stage standard grand opera in place of the lighter selections that have been produced.

It is set forth by proponents of grand opera that the Productions Committee will have under-rated the mentality of St. Louis opera patrons. It is inferred that a majority of those who attend would prefer grand opera to light opera. This sets ill with the facts.

When the Productions Committee some time ago conducted a straw vote through which patrons might indicate their preferences, the majority, it will be found, voted for so-called light opera. Against the more serious, heavier types of plays.

They showed good taste. A Wagnerian opera on a hot summer's night would be as incongruous as champagne and friend potatoes.

J. KINSELLA WILSON.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

I have seen several communications to the Post-Dispatch suggesting a "Tenants' League" for the purpose of curbing profiteering landlords.

I approve the plan, but in addition would respectfully suggest a "Landlords' League" against profiteering tenants who are plumbers, carpenters, mechanics, contractors, material men, etc. Let every trade, profession, manufacturer, merchant and people of every class have a special league of their own to stop profiteering of the other fellow.

I would suggest further that all tenants who have money invested in more profitable enterprises than real estate or do not want to be worried with it, or those who can afford it, build their own homes and resign from the "Tenants' League" to join that of the "Landlords." Let's secure the low-line of the late Joseph McCullough then let's all have a pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether, and discord and the high cost of living will vanish from St. Louis.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

The morning paper states that a black snake "sunk its fangs" into a girl's flesh. Black snakes have no "fangs." They are harmless. Belonging to the constrictor family, the only damage they can do is by coiling around something animate and squeezing it. A black snake four feet long (and that is a big one) could not possibly injure one by coiling around his leg. It might, if left undisturbed for 15 or 20 minutes, impair blood circulation, but any grown person could uncoil it instantly.

Again, black snakes should not be killed. They destroy field mice, moles and other agricultural pests. Not only that, but they are protectors of humanity. The enmity between poisonous and non-poisonous snakes is as great as that of the traditional "heel of the woman" against the serpent. Whenever they come within sight of each other there is a fight and the nonvenomous snake usually emerges his adversary.

NATURALIST.

THE RAILROAD WAGE AWARD.

In round numbers, the increase of wages awarded to the railroad employes amounts to 21 per cent of the present wage scale and 60 per cent of the increase demanded by the employes. This means a total increase of $600,000,000 instead of the $1,000,000,000 demanded. The increases extend with varying percentages to every class of wage earners in railroad employment.

Until the report of the wage board is digested and compared with the demands of the men and the previous conditions of employment, it is impossible to form a sound judgment of its reasonableness and fairness. The presumption is in favor of its fairness. Presumably the board took account of the question of a living wage, the existing wage scale and conditions of labor which are the basis of the increase and the condition of the railroads.

Certainly the brotherhoods cannot lightly reject so great an increase and so substantial a percentage of their extreme demands, granted on careful investigation and deliberation by a wage board acting under law and by Government direction. There will have to be clear proof of unfairness or inadequateness to justify strike action, which would plunge the country into unmeasured disaster and hardship.

The railroad employes must consider conditions, just as the wage board is governed by them, and the public, which pays all earnings and wages, must consider them. The railroad situation is bad. The roads are struggling out of war conditions with woeful lack of equipment, with complicated problems to solve and with inadequate income to meet pressing needs. Production lags, business is checked and the public is suffering, the high cost of living exceeding for large groups the standard of income. A strike would intensify all these hardships. A greater increase in wages would contribute to public hardship, shared by the railroad employes through increased prices.

There is another potent consideration which should lead the railroad men to avoid anything in the nature of unreasonable action in connection with the award. Union labor is committed to arbitration. It is an unqualified supporter of collective bargaining. In this wage award we have collective bargaining in its widest significance and arbitration at its best. The award is in the nature of a court decision. It is the decision of a legally constituted, impartial tribunal created by the Government to arbitrate differences and organized with representatives of the various interests involved with the definite object of securing justice to all concerned.

The success of the wage board's work has a direct bearing upon the success of arbitration as a substitute for costly strikes and lockouts. If it fails, where shall we look outside of deadly industrial war for a solution of the labor problem? Continued industrial war means chaos, in which will be involved not only the ruin of industry and commerce, but the destruction of orderly labor organizations, which have been endangered by rebellions and wildcat strikes.

Orderly processes of law and reason mean the salvation of labor as well as of the republic. Submission to the decisions of impartial tribunals acting under law is the root of good citizenship and sound progress.

The railroad brotherhoods face a heavy responsibility in their action with regard to this wage award. Their conduct will go far toward determining the public attitude towards them, the future of labor organizations and the welfare of the country. We believe that wisdom points to the acceptance of the award as a long step towards the realization of all reasonable aims of labor.

THAT BAIL BOND FEE AGAIN.

The net result of the arrest of 33 persons on a gambling charge, absolutely unsupported by evidence, was that $17.50 was added to the police fund in fees for the bail bonds at 50 cents each. This was so manifest as to draw a comment from the bench in Judge Littner's statement that the case was a failure except in its financial aspect.

It is in this financial aspect that the exaction of the questionable fee has its most objectionable feature. Its payment has been time and time again resisted, without authoritative determination of its legality. A case of recent origin is now on its way to the Supreme Court, but, like those of the past, may never reach the stage of a final judgment.

After all, is it not a case for the Police Board, rather than the courts?

Is a practice whose inevitable effect must be to furnish incentive for multiplying the number of arrests a practice justified by sound public policy?

A small addition to the police relief fund is the only result of many arrests made in the course of a year. The defendants in most of these cases ought not to be brought to court at all. In another class of trivial cases which ought, perhaps, to have the attention of a court, arrests are made when a simple summons would suffice.

Since 1911 a total of $73,102 has been collected by the Police Department in bond fees. No fault can be found with the disposition of the money. It is a derivation that is censurable. This increase in money available for incapacitated policemen and their dependents has been purchased at a vast cost to many persons who ought not to have been subjected to such cost.

The Police Board should not await the action of the courts. The city's legal officers long ago decided 50,000 POTENTIAL NEW CONVICTS.

A local clergyman declares that 2.35 per cent beer is as absurd as 2.75 per cent slavery would be. Would one-half of 1 per cent slavery be as absurd as one-half of 1 per cent beer?

The clergyman made a good epigram, but epigrams throw little light on the real problem of such an issue. A printed estimate is that, in the brief time prohibition has been in effect, 50,000 persons have been arrested for violation of some of its drastic, far-reaching provisions, or one out of each 2000 of the population of the country. Under the Volstead act, every one of these arrests for which probable cause existed involved the possibility of imprisonment on conviction, and the machinery of the United States Court is not designed to acquit on a showing of fact—carrying possibly the case of trust magnates.

Doubtless not a single person is now in prison or under arrest for violation of the slavery amendment. The total arrests for such violations since the adoption of the amendment can hardly exceed a few score. Not the slightest analogy is presented to the prohibition amendment.

Of course, it may be said that while prohibition is newly in effect, the frequency of arrests would naturally be greater than in subsequent years, after people have settled down to the changed order. When, however, we remember that the greater portion of the territory and population of the country had previously been habituated to prohibition under state enactments, the hope of decrease in arrests is not strong. Indeed, the experience of some prohibition states might justify an expectation of an increase, as personal supplies preserved from wet days are exhausted.

While, owing to the espionage and other emergency laws, the number is probably now much greater, the total Federal prisoners under confinement in 1910, according to the census of that year, was 1904. Imagine 50,000, or even 25,000, added to the number. That imprisonment must be the penalty instead of fine seems to be the opinion of many United States Judges charged with enforcing the law.

Including Federal offenders, juvenile offenders and those convicted of all manner of petty misdemeanors, the total number confined in all penal institutions of all kinds in the United States was 111,498 in 1910.

Arrests which, within a few months, might, under a strict application of the Volstead act, threaten an increase in the total number of convicts by almost half and in the number of Federal convicts by 20 fold or more certainly give ground for serious reflection.

This new delegation of authority to the Federal Government affords excuse and opportunity for more prying scrutiny of the acts of the people, more activity on the part of swarming Federal officials empowered to make arrests, more business for prosecuting agents and courts than all past delegations of authority put together. In other words, the enforcement of one section of the Federal Constitution is a vastly greater problem than the enforcement of all other sections combined.

Is or is not so tremendous a change in the form and practical workings of our system of government to be viewed with concern?

France is also far behind the United States in political strategy. For example, President Deschanel has been ill for a long time, but no political party over there has adopted resolutions of jubilation over that fact.

THE DEMOCRATS' DILEMMA.

A Democrat, whether his brow be high or low, is in for an unhappy time if this year. If he is an intellectual and therefore pro-Wilson, he can support his party ticket only by renouncing allegiance to his idol. For Senator Penrose has made it plain that the San Francisco convention repudiated the President and held him up to scorn. The Pennsylvania statesman, it will be remembered, permitted considerable emotion to seep through his reflections on the restoration of the dictatorship of the proletariat within the Democratic party.

But another interpretation of Democratic misfortune has just come to us from Marion. Sitting attentively at his "listening-post," Mr. Harding overheard the discussion at the White House conference between the President and the party candidates before the conference was held. And the Ohio editor was convinced in advance that Gov. Cox had surrendered abjectly to the President, with the result that, should Mr. Cox be elected, Mr. Wilson will be the dominant influence of the next administration.

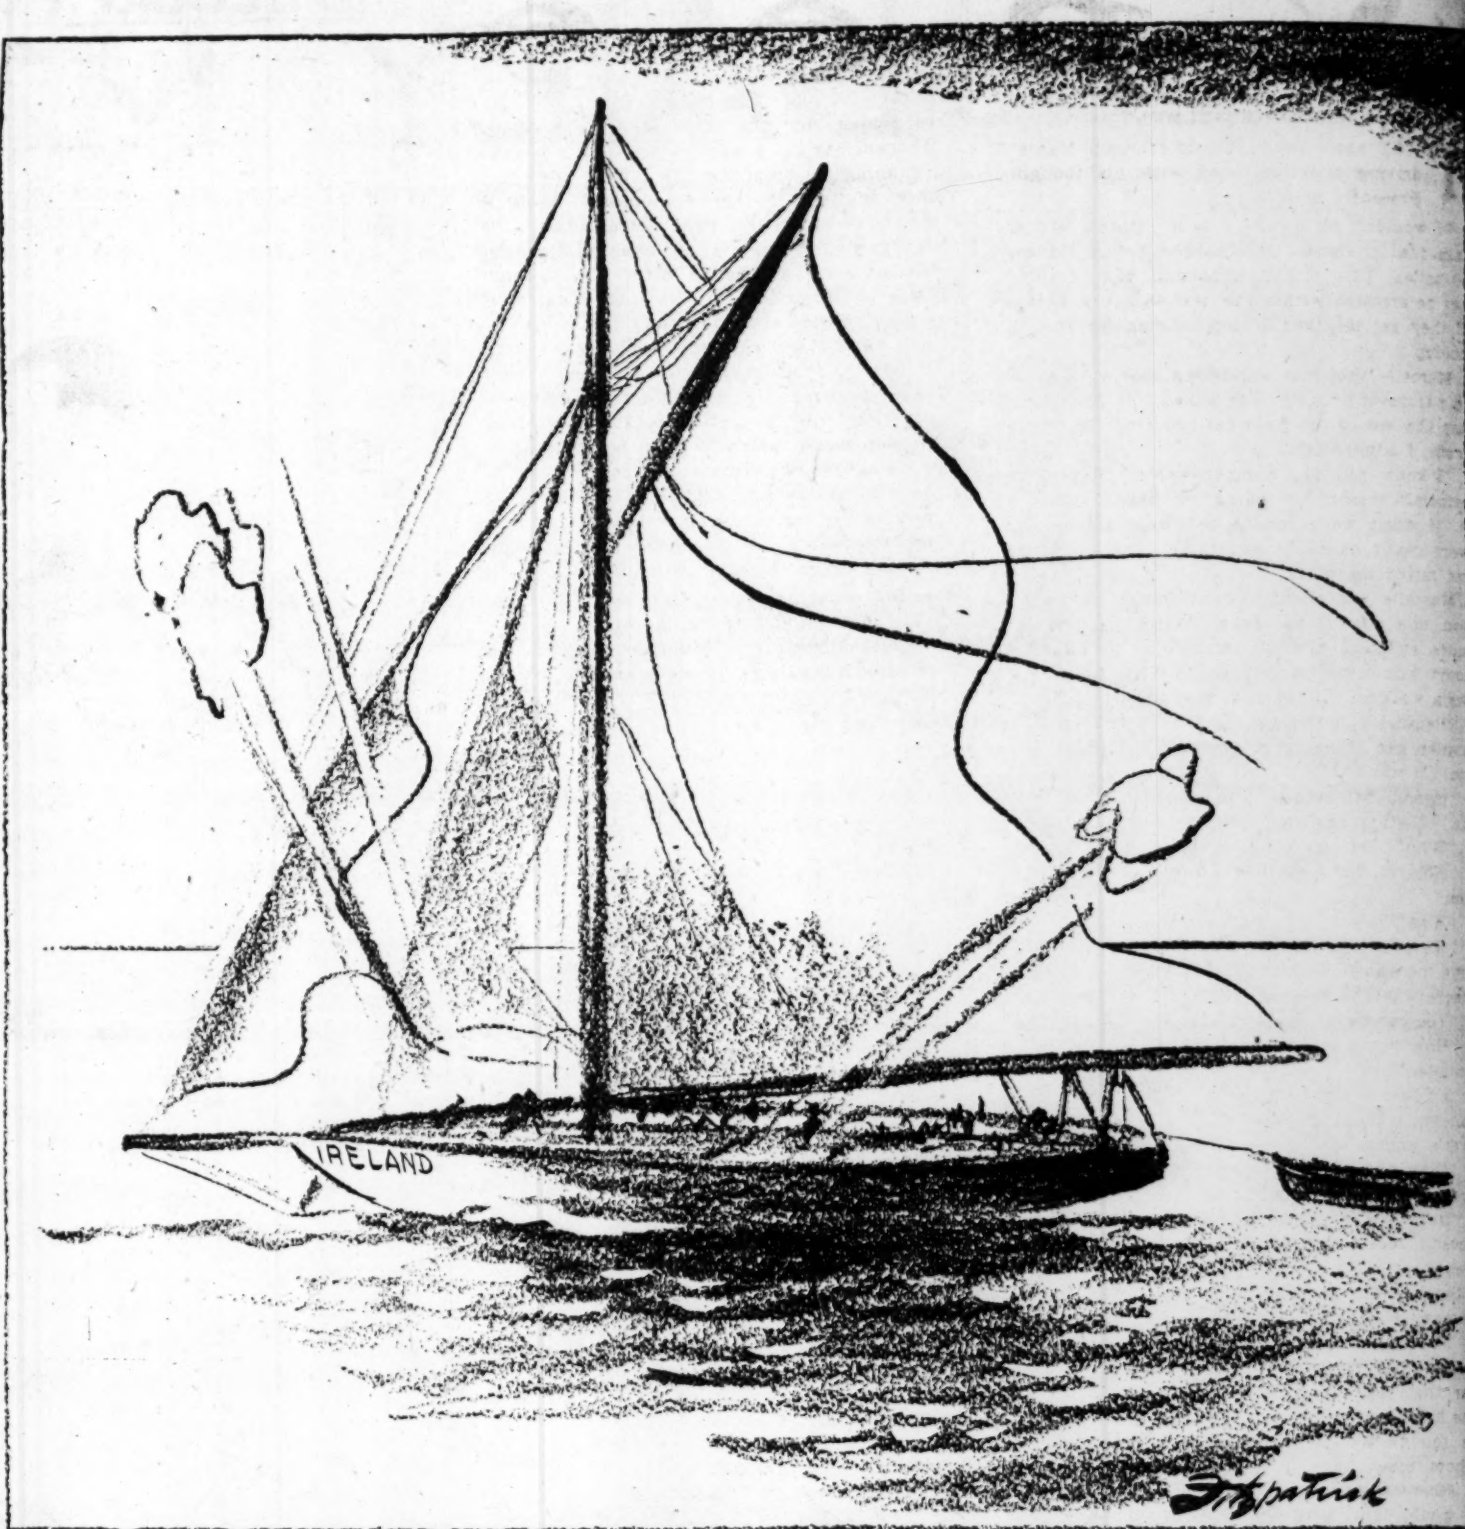

So, there ye are, as Mr. Dooley used to say. The Democrats who are determined to end the Wilson dynasty cannot support their party ticket, since they are assured by the Republican candidate that the election of Cox will only prolong the Wilson reign. And the Democrats with skyscraping foreheads cannot vote for Cox because they are assured by the man that nominated the Republican candidate that the Ohio Governor's election means the rule of the mob, to say nothing of the per cent in the cup.

With both horns of the dilemma utterly untenable, what must the harried Democrats do? They might, perhaps, seek counsel at Marion, where, it might be ventured, the latchstring is on the outside of the front porch.

SOCRATES AND HIS PUPILS.

SOCRATES: Last night at the agora we considered the part woman is to play in the coming campaign. You know a number of women are coming now, and those present last night seemed hurt somewhat when I said that so far as I can see woman is not to be a factor in the campaign. Assuming that they are to participate in the choice of a President, there is no indication so far as I know that they are very likely to be without.

SOCRATES: Exactly. Do you see any prospect for an unpartisan vote on the League of Nations? Glaucou: You feel that the women might have constituted a big independent vote which we are very likely to be without.

SOCRATES: Nor does anyone else. I asked if there were anyone at the agora last night who felt that we would have an independent expression upon that issue, and there seemed to be no one. The truth is that at a time when we need independence possibly more than we have ever needed it we find ourselves without hope of it.

Polemarchus: How do you account for it? Socrates: It is merely an echo of the partisan light in the Senate. We are affected by that sort of thing much more than we realize. After all, our independents are for the most part people formerly having party affiliations. When partisanship becomes bitter those people go back to their parties, just as when it is sweet they stray from their parties and vote what they think as opposed to what they feel. Think how many of us who have been independents are now back with our parties.

Thrasymachus: By Jove, yes! I had not thought of it. Socrates: One of the women said last night that I was unquestionably right. She did not relish having the point developed, but she admitted it. I told the women last night that in my opinion their entrance into politics under circumstances is unfortunate, since at a time of less partisan feeling they might have come in less partially and remained an independent force.

Glaucou: I think that is so. Did the women agree that this might be true? Socrates: Some of them did. You know not all women are satisfied with the way they are getting off. They realize that women have become a negligible factor in the campaign even before they have got the vote, and they are not happy about it. Some of the more thoughtful among them are claiming no more for woman's participation in politics than a greater measure of wholesome independence in local affairs. Dear me, and women, under better leadership, would have settled the League of Nations question for us as we cannot now hope to have it settled!

Polemarchus: Maybe the women will do better than we think.

Socrates: I wish we might hope so. None of us has ever seen a campaign in which everybody can be accounted for as easily as in the present campaign. You know exactly who are at the Reed meetings, for instance, without being told. Did you ever see anything like it? Thrasymachus: I never did.

Socrates: I would suggest urging all men to release their wives in the present crisis if it would not cause a laugh.

Glaucou: It would cause a laugh, all right. Socrates: I know it would. Now let us watch the automobiles pass and see if we can tell from the expression upon each driver's face about how much he has paid on his car.

TRADE AND FINANCE.

THEODORE H. PRICE, in the World's Work.

THERE is not enough gold to go round and pending the discovery of some new supply a way must be found to use a yardstick that will measure values in terms of gold without using the gold itself. From the fiscal years 1890 to 1919 the foreign or external trade of the United States increased by 6261 per cent and that of Great Britain by 3446 per cent, while the aggregate of the world's gold production in the same period shows a gain of but 651 per cent. It is certain as anything can be that the increase in trade during the next 100 years will be much greater than it was in the previous century. How is it to be financed on a gold basis unless someone invents a way to make one gold dollar or 50 cents or even 25 cents in gold serve as a reserve where several dollars were formerly required? I commend the question to the serious consideration of bankers in the hope that they may find and apply an answer to it before the money stringency—that now seems unavoidable if the present minimum reserves are to be maintained—shall bring on a panic that can be checked only by the unrestricted use of fiat currency.

BUSINESS AND POLITICS.

From the Century.

THE liberal outlook is conditioned by what we may expect from business men, laboring men, educators, ministers, editors, financiers—all those who stimulate the thought and do the work of the nation. One of the important groups, if not the most important group, whose aim and action will profoundly influence the developments of the next four years is the business men of the United States. Will theirs be a liberal or illiberal contribution? Great responsibility rests upon American business men in the working out of just and constructive economic policies, without which political and industrial liberalism will remain in the stage of propaganda. The gaining by business men of a fresh sense of the social significance of business in this industrial nation is of primary importance.

THE HOOVER OF RUSSIA.

JOHN A. GADE, in the World's Work.

KRASSIN is a brilliant engineer and clever business man, today the far-sighted Hoover of Russia, with a genius for organization. He was bought long ago by Germany and, after having in Imperial days been released from his Finnish Russian prison by powerful German pressure, immediately entered the employ of the large Siemens-Schuckert Company in Germany. After thorough inoculation with the Virus Germanicus, he was transferred to Petrograd, becoming manager of the Siemens-Schuckert branch there. German interests were in the ablest of hands and Krassin's far-reaching influence soon made itself felt in more ways than one. He realized clearly that anyone else today that only by economic reconstruction can Russia be revitalized. He also understood at least the present inability of Germany to help to the powerful extent needed, and is therefore willing to "sell out" to England, as far as he is forced to. Krassin again stands beside Lenin in his present great fight for the management of factories by a board of directors instead of by the workmen themselves. Lenin has long felt that any further nationalization of industries merely invited their destruction. Krassin immediately entered the employ of the large Siemens-Schuckert Company in Germany. MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY

By James J. Montague.

ROUGH STUFF.
I used to wonder what was done
With all that T N T,
They used before the war was won
To free democracy.
But now, no longer deep in doubt
Upon this thing I muse,
For I have recently found out
They put it in the booze.

In other days when men got lit
By drinking free and deep,
They always carried on a bit,
And then they went to sleep.
But on the stuff bootleggers sell
Nice men, unversed in crime,
Will wake the town up raising Ned
For fortnights at a time.

No alcohol—drawn from the wood—
(And that is seldom mild)
No liquid fire ever could
Make men half so wild.
It must be that the souses who
Lay in the modern load,
Inside burn red, white and blue
And after that explode.

Though drunks are not so common now
One cannot but confess
That though it don't seem right, somehow,
There's far more drunkenness.
For on the liquor that's been brewed
Since we got out of war,
One run hound can get just as stewed
As twenty did before.

Borrowing Trouble.

A merchant doing an extensive trade came to a friend recently and offered him 2 per cent a month for a loan of $100,000.

"No business can stand such a premium for money," said the second merchant.

"My business will justify paying any rate of interest," said the first merchant.

"Why discount for a short time?" asked the prospective lender. "Why not make it for two or three years? I will discount your note for $100,000 if you make it three years."

"Thank you, thank you!" said the other, relieved.

"John, draw up a note," directed the lender to his bookkeeper, "and take off the discount of 3 per cent a month on $100,000 for three years, and draw a check for the balance to our friend here."

Presently the bookkeeper handed his employer a memo which he glanced over.

"Have you a blank check with you?" he asked the borrower.

"A check? what for?" asked the other.

"Why, John's statement shows that if I discount your note for three years at 3 per cent a month you owe me $8000."—The Cashier.

Days when men lived on very simple fodder,
And patched their coats with rivets
and with solder!

Those days that died ere lived the earliest Tudor
Were happier, I think, though somewhat ruder;
The ship of state sailed on without a rudder,
And living was one long, delicious shudder.

But swords grew weaker as the guns
grew louder;
Dames took to paint, and warriors to powder.

"Yes, mum," sniveled the Panhandler, "there was a time when I rode in my own carriage."

"My, what a comedown!" symthized the Kind-Hearted Woman. "And how long has it been since you rode in your own carriage?" "Just 15 years, mum," replied the Panhandler, as he pocketed the proffered dime. "I was a Poby then."
